

Luther's words...For Comfort Come Back to Christ

We should forget about our sin (for there is a time to think of sin, and there is also a time not to think of sin) and not follow up the gnawing and biting of our conscience nor judge according to our feeling but according to the Word. (WLS #956)