

Spiritual Liberty Grants No Moral License

If people want to enjoy my teaching and be free from the law of the pope, they must do so without harming and endangering others, or they must stay under the pope; for my Gospel allows no one the sort of freedom from pope and from devil that threatens to be harmful and dangerous to another. People should certainly be free, but not contrary to the laws of God and the rights of love.